SHANGHAI MARATHON

Details

I Run the Globe is delighted to offer guaranteed entry and exclusive accommodation packages for the 2025 Shanghai Marathon.

The Shanghai Marathon has now been officially nominated as a candidate race for inclusion in the prestigious Abbott World Marathon Majors, placing it among the most elite running events in the world. It is known to be the biggest marathon in China.

This celebrated event offers participants the unforgettable opportunity to run through one of Asia's most iconic cities. The race route winds its way through the bustling streets of Shanghai, showcasing its stunning blend of modern skyline and historic charm. Runners will pass famous landmarks, including the futuristic towers of Lujiazui and the colonial-era architecture of the Bund, while enjoying breathtaking views along the scenic Huangpu River. With tens of thousands of participants from around the globe, the atmosphere is electric.

Shanghai is China's largest and most cosmopolitan city, known for its dynamic blend of tradition and modernity. Located on the eastern coast where the Yangtze River meets the East China Sea, it's a global financial hub and a vibrant metropolis bursting with energy. The city is famous for its futuristic vibe in Pudong, and rich cultural landmarks like Yu Garden and the Jade Buddha Temple. Whether you're exploring ancient alleyways or soaring to the top of the Shanghai Tower, the city offers a unique mix of old and new that makes it one of the most exciting destinations in the world.
