The Valencia Marathon – Trinidad Alfonso EDP is one of Europe's most celebrated road races, known for its fast, flat course, vibrant atmosphere, and picture-perfect urban scenery. Held annually in the beautiful city of Valencia, Spain, this marathon attracts runners from around the world who come for personal bests, national records, and unforgettable race experiences.

With its typically mild winter weather, enthusiastic crowds, and world-class organization, the Valencia Marathon is ideal for seasoned marathoners, first-time marathoners, and anyone chasing a fast time. In recent years, the event has become known as one of the fastest courses in the world, earning Platinum Label status from World Athletics.

Beyond the race itself, Valencia offers a rich cultural experience — from its historic old town and futuristic City of Arts and Sciences to its delicious Mediterranean cuisine and welcoming Spanish hospitality.

Valencia boasts a runner-friendly course that winds through modern avenues, alongside historic neighborhoods, and past iconic landmarks. Beginning in the city center, the route takes you through wide boulevards, leafy parks, and scenic waterfront areas before finishing in the stunning Turia Gardens — a lush park built in a former riverbed that has become the heart of Valencia's outdoor life.

Whether you're aiming for a new personal record or simply want to run one of Europe's most acclaimed marathons, the Valencia Marathon delivers an unforgettable journey from start to finish.
